Dress Code Policy

In order to promote a professional atmosphere, BPA's Board of Trustees has developed the following official dress code policy for the Business Professionals of America National Leadership Conference. Students, advisors and chaperones must follow the dress code. It is recommended that all guests follow established dress code policy.

Members not dressed in required attire will not be allowed to participate in any session or any competitive event. Members not adhering to the professional dress code will not be allowed on stage.

This year, khaki (white, navy, black or tan) pants and a BPA T-shirt are required at the Opening General Session at the Washington Monument. Purchase a 2011 Official Conference T-shirt and join us in making photo history!

National Association of Parliamentarians Test This is a national-level test consisting objective questions selected from a test bank of 300 questions that is provided free of charge on the NAP Web site (www.parliamentarians.org) for the purpose of pre-test preparation.

For those passing the exam at NLC, there is a fee plus state dues for NAP membership which includes member publications and more. One hour will be allotted for completing the paper and pencil test. Test time: Thursday, May 5, 12:00 pm-5:00 pm, in the Hilton Kalorama.

Violation of Delegate Conduct

Anyone who violates the Delegate Conduct Practices and Procedures (found on the following page) should be reported to the BPA Executive Director. Those delegates reported for rule infractions will be asked to meet with the NLC Rules Committee and the delegate's advisor. All rule infractions requiring disciplinary action will be reported to the administration office of the student's school district via registered letter.

Possible Penalties for Breaking the Code of Conduct

Post-secondary

- Expulsion from conference for any use or possession of illegal drugs by anyone or any use or possession of alcohol by minors, or intentionally causing damage to property.
 - Disqualification from competition for use of alcohol at any NLC function.
- Elimination of recognition at Awards Ceremony for violation of any other portion of the Code of Conduct that is pertinent to the Post-secondary Division.

Secondary/Middle Level

- Expulsion from conference for any use or possession of illegal drugs or alcohol, damage to property done intentionally, or gross violation of male and female room regulations.
- Disqualification from competition for violation of male and female room regulations.
- Elimination of recognition at Awards Ceremony for violation of curfew and any other portion of the Code of Conduct that is pertinent to the Secondary Division.
